INCIDENT SUMMARY:

On 7/04/2013 at around 8:30 PM, the St. Louis County Sheriff's Office was called to a fireworks complaint in the area of the 7000 block of Sherwood Anderson Road in Great Scott Township. While deputies were enroute to the call, Phillips drove over to Lumby's property to confront him about the fireworks and allegedly pulled out a handgun and pointed it at Lumby's head and threatened to kill him in front of other witnesses. Phillips was subsequently taken into custody without incident and a search warrant was executed at his residence where several handguns fitting the victim's description, were seized. Phillips remains in custody on charges of 2nd degree assault, terroristic threats, and damage to property. The incident remains under investigation at this time.
